

New Resident Orientation

The NRO held its new resident orientation on 19 April. Present were 15 residents, nine new and six seasoned. The residents who were not new are named but not pictured and include: Doloras Allenbaugh, Ferideh Sani and Mahmood Ronaghi, Linda Byrne, and Linda Graham

Pictured below are attendees, in alphabetical order, who moved to Solera within the past year. When you see them, say "hi" and help them feel welcome to our wonderful community!

John Connor, working as a buyer and purchasing agent, moved to Falconer from his home near Nellis AFB in September '24. Hobbies include bowling and stock investing. He loves his new Solera neighborhood!

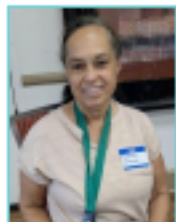

Sandra Lanehart is a resident on Corbin Avenue. Although a three-year resident elsewhere in LV, she worked in credit card services. She hails from Pennsylvania.

William Curry moved to Blue Ribbon Downs in January of '25. As a prior LV resident, he was a resident manager. He loves to gamble and states he is happily single.

Frank Swindell joined his wife, Selena in February '25 from Boston. He worked in construction. His hobby is playing the guitar. He considers himself friendly and considerate.

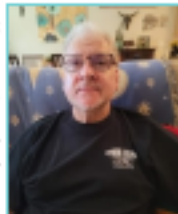

Teresa Johnson is a new Solera resident who hails from Oceanside, California. She is a former human resources director. Her hobbies include dancing, hiking and needlework. She also loves hula dancing and crocheting.

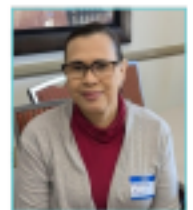

Rebecca and Dave Tackitt moved from Chicago in October '24 to Tack Street. Rebecca is a semi-retired teacher; previously a yoga and fitness teacher. Dave is still working as an IT professional. Their hobby is their dog, Buddy!

Steven Kelleher moved to Budenny the end of March '25, from the Bronx, NY. His work experience is as a subway operator in NY City. He enjoys music and reading and loves to cook and grow tomatoes.

Amarillys Zahas relocated to Wheat Penny in September '24 from Las Vegas. She loves to cook and considers herself a straight-forward person.
